Chambers HNW Guide 2022 recognition

We are delighted to confirm our rankings in the Chambers & Partners HNW Guide 2022. Our Private Client team retains its Band 1 status for Art and Cultural Property Law and Sandrine Giroud her Band 1 ranking in this highly competitive area.

The firm's success is also reflected in the Private Wealth Law section of the guide, with the promotion in rankings of both LALIVE and Werner Jahnel, while Alexander Troller confirms his position.

LALIVE's international Private Client team in Geneva and Zurich strives to protect the personal and financial interests of successful individuals on a full range of contentious and noncontentious issues, including estate planning and related disputes, succession of family businesses, relocation, philanthropy and art law.
