

LALIVE

LALIVE Litigation Team again Highly Ranked by The Legal 500

This year, LALIVE's top tier Litigation team has seen eight of its partners in Geneva and Zurich recommended for litigation, banking and finance and private client-related litigation, namely Alexander Troller, Marc Henzelin, Simone Nadelhofer, Werner Jahnel, Daniel Lucien Bühr, Sandrine Giroud (also recognised as Next Generation Partner), Matthias Gstoehl and André Brunschweiler.

The Legal 500 has also noted the excellent work of counsels Dominik Elmiger in Zurich and Nicolas Ollivier in Geneva, in Banking and Finance, both of whom entered the rankings for the first time in this edition as a testament of the firm's growing practice in this sector. Dominik Elmiger's practice focuses on domestic and cross-border litigation with particular focus on corporate and commercial litigation, asset recovery and insolvency proceedings. Nicolas Ollivier specializes in complex financial disputes and regularly represents clients in administrative and enforcement proceedings before the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority (FINMA).

The firm's expertise in Intellectual Property led by counsel Thomas Widmer is also recognized in this year's edition.

LALIVE is a disputes powerhouse with a litigation team currently comprised of 34 lawyers, including 9 partners, based in Geneva and Zurich. The firm also has an office in London.
