Isabella Cannatà elected to AIA-ARBIT-40's Executive Committee

LALIVE associate Isabella Cannatà has been elected to the Italian AIA-Arbit under 40 Arbitration Group's (AIA-Arbit-40) first Executive Committee.

In this role, Isabella will work alongside the co-chairs and the five other Executive Committee members in promoting AIA and Arbit's activities in Italy and abroad aimed at the younger generation of lawyers with a link to Italy.

The firm is proud of its younger generations of international arbitration practitioners and their roles in key arbitration associations including currently IBA Arb-40 (Noradèle Radjai), YIAG and ASA Below 40 (Catherine Kunz), CFA-40 (Eléonore Caroit) and CEA (Jaime Gallego and Clàudia Baró), as well as their recognition as Future Leaders in Arbitration by Who's Who Legal.
