

LALIVE

LALIVE Practitioners recognised as Thought Leaders in Switzerland

The firm is delighted to announce that, in the inaugural edition of Who's Who Legal: Thought Leaders – Switzerland (WWL), which identifies the leading practitioners in this jurisdiction, a total of eleven partners have been selected as thought leaders in seven areas of practice, confirming the firm's leading position in the market. In compiling this guide, WWL based its findings on peer review and client feedback.

LALIVE has been selected as the leading firm in arbitration in Switzerland, with eight partners featured (namely Michael E. Schneider, Teresa Giovannini, Matthias Scherer, Veijo Heiskanen, Domitille Baizeau, Bernd Ehle, Noradèle Radjai and Joachim Knoll), twice the number of any other Swiss firm. Michael E. Schneider also earns recognition for his standout expertise in construction.

A number of partners in the firm's litigation team are also singled out as prominent practitioners, namely Marc Henzelin in Business Crime Defence, Investigations and Asset Recovery, Alexander Troller in Private Client and Sandrine Giroud in Litigation.

The firm's strong dispute resolution team, composed of 19 partners and 40 counsel and associates, many of whom are recognised in the Who's Who Legal and other leading legal directories, is increasingly recognised by both peers and clients in its main practice areas.
