Nine LALIVE lawyers selected among future leaders in arbitration

Further to the publication of Who's Who Legal's first guide focusing on the future leaders in arbitration, namely practitioners aged under 45, LALIVE is delighted that 9 of its lawyers have been selected. This places the firm in eighth place worldwide based on the number of ranked lawyers.

In compiling this list, Who's Who undertook extensive research in the arbitration community, asking for the opinions of both active practitioners and clients. LALIVE partner Noradèle Radjai, who is also ranked in Who's Who Legal: Arbitration, is ranked in the partner section while counsel Laura Halonen and associates Jaime Gallego, Lorraine de Germiny, Catherine Anne Kunz, Johannes Landbrecht, Samuel Moss (also ranked in Who's Who Legal: Construction), Christophe Guibert de Bruet and Olivier Mosimann are ranked in the non-partner section.

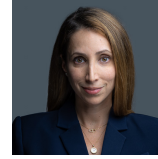

As part of this ranking, Who's Who also compiles a list of the top 45 practitioners under 45 worldwide, in which partner Noradèle Radjai and counsel Laura Halonen are included.

They all garner extensive praise from peers and clients alike for their technical, advocacy and client handling skills.

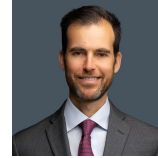

The firm is proud of this recognition of its multicultural and highly talented team. LALIVE's arbitration team currently comprises 45 arbitration practitioners based in Geneva and Zurich.
